YOUR TOUR ITINERARY

Your private day around Bratislava begins with the trip to Devín Castle, a mighty fortress perched on a cliff where the Danube and Morava Rivers meet. From the top, enjoy stunning views across the rivers into Austria (castle entrance fee not included). Here, you'll also learn about the Iron Curtain, the heavily guarded border that once divided East and West, and the people who risked their lives trying to cross it. We continue to Slavín War Memorial, honoring the Soviet soldiers who fell in the liberation of Bratislava in 1945, and on to Bratislava Castle to enjoy the views and stroll through its Baroque garden. Then we drive through Petržalka, one of the largest housing estates in Central Europe, built during the communist era, for a glimpse of everyday life behind the Iron Curtain. Next, visit the fairy-tale Blue Church and see the modern face of Bratislava: the Sky Park district and Eurovea with its lively Danube promenade, where we stop for lunch.

In the afternoon, we explore Bratislava's charming Old Town on foot, diving into its history, architecture and music, and sharing what life was like under communism and what it's like here today. Stroll across elegant Hviezdoslav Square, lined with impressive buildings such as the historic Slovak National Theatre. Step inside St. Martin's Cathedral, where 11 kings and 8 queens of the Kingdom of Hungary were crowned, including Empress Maria Theresa. Wander along medieval streets and pass through St. Michael's Gate, the only one of the town's medieval gates to survive. From the Main Square, see the Old Town Hall and take a few photos, then walk through its courtyard to another jewel, the Primate's Palace. Along the way, discover hidden courtyards and Bratislava's many statues and fountains.

There's plenty of time for photos and a relaxing coffee and cake break. We love Bratislava, and we're sure you'll love its vibe and atmosphere too.

Difficulty: Easy – by car and on foot, mostly flat cobbled streets, with one uphill walk to Devin Castle
Good to know: Comfortable shoes recommended
