YOUR TOUR ITINERARY

We start our private tour with a drive to the Chatam Sofer Memorial (5-7min drive), the city's most important Jewish site, a place of pilgrimage for visitors from around the world. Hidden beneath the riverside embankment is a unique underground complex that preserves the last surviving fragment of Bratislava's old Jewish cemetery, which was largely destroyed during the Second World War. Here rests the renowned rabbi and scholar Chatam Sofer (1762–1839), whose yeshiva made Pressburg famous throughout the Jewish world, together with 22 other prominent figures of the community. A local guide will accompany us on this special visit.

We continue with a visit of the Orthodox Jewish Cemetery, located a short distance away, a quiet and atmospheric place whose gravestones tell the story of the families who shaped the community over the generations. We return (by car) to the Old town and walk to the Holocaust Memorial, which honours the victims of the Shoah. It stands on the site of the magnificent Neolog synagogue, whose outline is still recalled at the memorial today. From there, we walk along Zidovska ulica (Jewish street), once the heart of the Jewish quarter below the castle. Our walk leads to the Museum of Jewish Culture, where you can get an overview of religious life, traditions and the history of Slovak Jewry. We then continue and walk through the remains of the medieval defensive walls, there is an exhibition of the remarkable Jewish personalities connected with Bratislava.

And we walk through the Old town and reach the Orthodox Synagogue (outside) on Heydukova Street, the only synagogue in Bratislava still standing today. Built in the 1920s in a striking modernist style, with a bold colonnaded façade, it stands apart from the traditional synagogues of the region. It survived the war and the decades that followed, and it remains a living house of prayer for the local Jewish community. We end our walking tour in the Old town.

Optional trips (on request): Orthodox synagogue – entrance (we'll arrange an entrance)

Walking distance: approx. 1.8 km / 1.1mi
Difficulty: Easy (a relaxed walk on mostly flat cobbled streets, suitable for all ages)
Distance by car: 15min
Good to know: Comfortable shoes recommended
