

SLOVAKIA HERITAGE TOUR 2024

ABOUT THIS SMALL GROUP TOUR

10 DAYS / 1 COUNTRY / 5 UNESCO SIGHTS / LEVEL OF DIFFICULTY: EASY

The tour gets people out into the countryside and small towns where they can see how people live today as well as understand what village life was like when their grandparents or great-parents left," said Judy Northup-Bennett who provides general travel advice for people wanting to travel to Slovakia to discover their roots. "The Heritage Tour is more than visits to cathedrals, museums and historic sites in principal cities. The Heritage Tour's goal is to immerse people in Slovak culture with special music, language, and craft programs to rekindle the customs many remember from their childhood."

Northup-Bennett can also connect Slovak-Americans with genealogical researchers who will help them fill out their family trees as well as find and visit relatives who remained in Slovakia. "I've found that the Slovak families in Slovakia are thrilled to meet their Slovak-American cousins whom they've heard about in letter and photos," she explained. Often one of the travelers finds that these long-lost relatives have their childhood school photos that their grandmothers sent decades ago to their sisters and brothers who didn't come to America."

The September Slovakia Heritage Tour is now organized and operated by Peter and Jane Blazicek of Best Slovakia Tours, www.bestsloviatours.com, who partnered with founder Judy Northup-Bennett for 10 years. Judy is available to talk with you about the tour to see if it works for your Slovakia travel plans. She also consults on general Slovakia travel information, and how to trace your roots.
